ECO CLOTHING

PUREBABY

■ Verdict: What sets Purebaby apart is its stylish Pure Premmie range for bubs who swim in regular newborn sizes. It also has lovely organic linen and an affordable Year-Round Essentials range. Pyjamas are made up to size seven, but the rest is only for up to 24 months.

■ Price: T-shirts from $14.95.

ECO PEKO

■ Verdict: Inject some eco-funk into your baby's T-shirts. Slogans for baby tees include "Eco babies love to save water", while the toddler range gets more political, with "Tree Hugger" and "Give me ABCs not GMOs". All tees come with an eco-chic hessian bag and vegie seeds and part of proceeds go to helping the planet.

■ Price: All T-shirts $39.95.

GAIA

■ Verdict: The Gaia clothing range is beautifully soft. Once for babies only, Gaia now makes clothes up to a size 8. Designs are said to embrace the innocence, sanctity and whimsical joys of childhood and most parents would be ecstatic to wrap their child in this organic cotton from the moment they venture out from the womb.

■ Price: T-shirts from $26.95.
