

Menopause the musical is on at The Playhouse Theatre from November 24. It is hilarious and stars Donna Lee, Maria Mercedes, Cindy Pritchard and Carolyn Waddell. Silver has a double pass to give away. Email us at info@jetmedia.net.au with word menopause in the subject line.

These are the most delicious, healthy treat you will ever find. We love the packaging as much as we love what is inside. A perfect Christmas treat. Get them from EziWay, Swanbourne, Me Mum's Edgewater, Deli Divine and lots of other good food shops.

So, it's time to banish pasty skin again. Do it safely with a quick application of fake tan. The best by far is St Tropez and now they've got this one that is meant to be less smelly and can be applied every day to build a natural, even glow. Buy it from David Jones.

Eco peco is a sustainable fabric clothing label for babies and toddlers. It has a very organic feel and features classic unisex designs. Silver has two to give away. To win one, email us at info@jetmedia.net.au and put eco peco in the subject line. Eco Peko tshirts are $40. Find out more at info@ecopeko.com

The world's first green cosmeceutical skin care range has hit perth in time for Christmas. It is available exclusively at Assure medispa and promises anti-ageing results beyond anything else on the market. Book a complimentary consultation with Assure on 9380 0380. Silver has some to giveaway. Email us at info@jetmedia.net.au and put Assure in the subject line.

The Venus Spa Breeze is the best shaver around. It's got shave gel bars, so you don't need soap and a gorgeous white tea scent. It costs $14.25.