

OUR INTERNET PICKS

SHOPPING online is fun and convenient. Now there is fantastic range of fashion items and great buys for the family. However, looking for good-quality sites can be overwhelming with such a large number from which to choose.

Finding your way around can be daunting! We've provided a few good Australian sites, including a couple of WA sites, which offer a great range of stylish, beautiful and practical items to help point you in the right direction.

They may be too young to chain themselves to old growth trees or join the fight to save the whales...

...but the bubs in your life can take up the greenie cause by kitting themselves out in eco peko eco peko is a contemporary and slightly cheeky children's label, that cares about the environment.

Our range consists of high thread count, organic cotton t-shirts, happy daks, super big bibs and organic denim jeans. We have also just introduced a beautiful bamboo hoodie that suits all seasons.

All our clothes suit both boys and girls, are of high quality, and our company is based in Perth.

We have that perfect gift for all the little eco babies in your life, with every garment beautifully packaged in eco bags and boxes.

It will get your little greenie a great head start to a sustainable lifestyle
